

Maryland Historic National Road Scenic Byway

THE ALLEGHENY PLATEAU

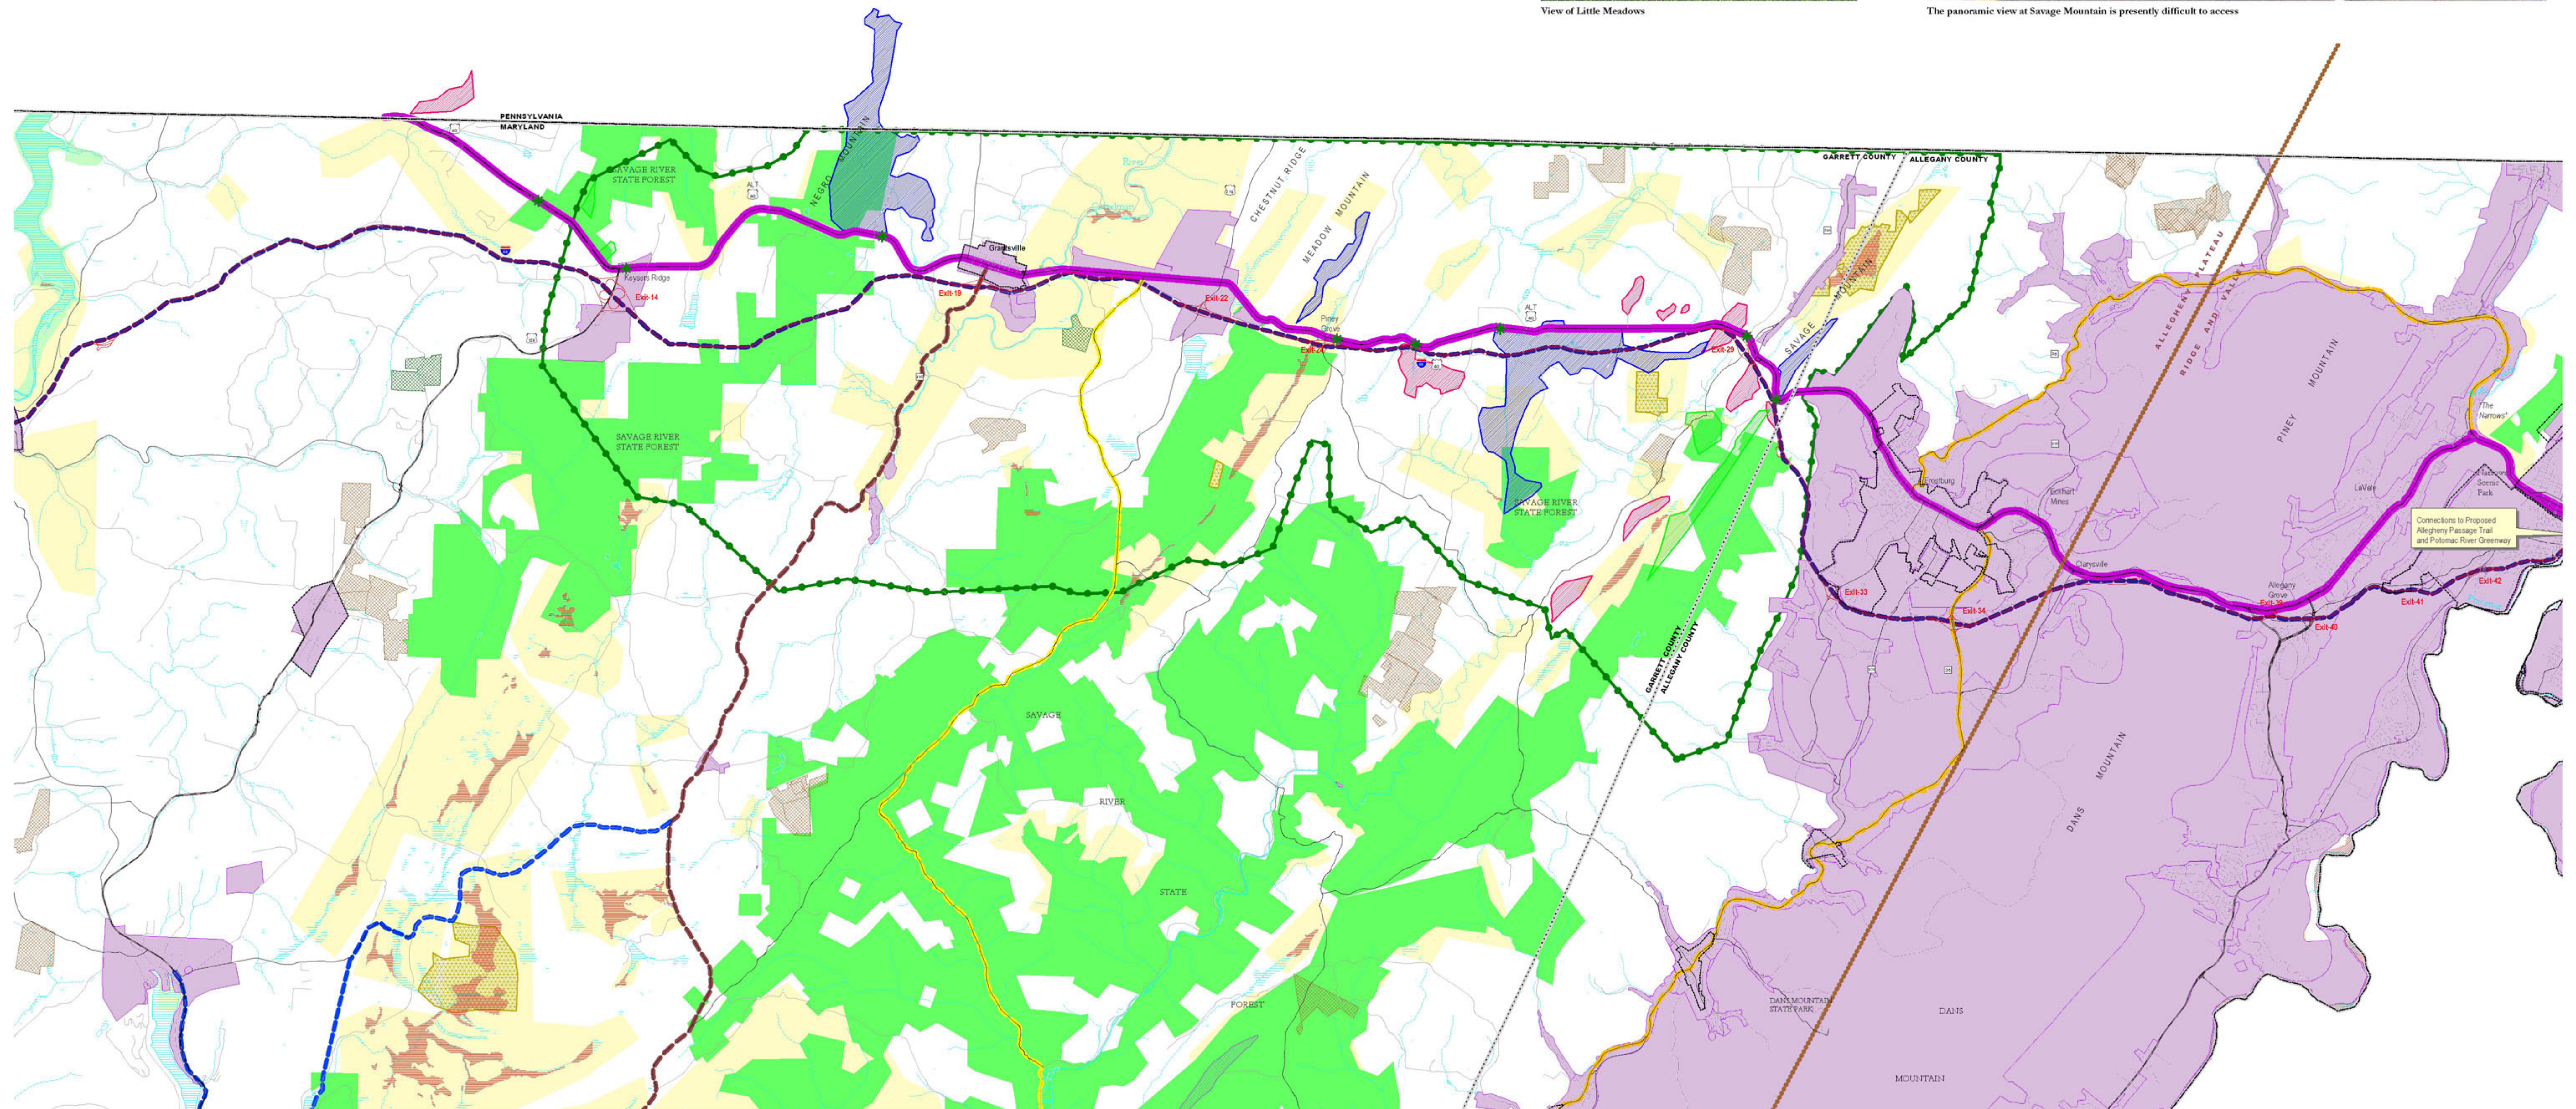

From the Pennsylvania State Line to LaVale

View of Little Meadows

The panoramic view at Savage Mountain is presently difficult to access

Scenic Conservation Priorities and Corridor-Wide Resources Map Legend

The National Road <ul style="list-style-type: none">The Historic National Road Scenic Byway	High Quality and Visually Prominent Views <ul style="list-style-type: none">High Quality ViewsUnprotected ViewshedPartially Protected ViewshedProtected Viewshed	Public Lands <ul style="list-style-type: none">Natural Heritage AreasFederal LandsState LandsCounty Lands	Conservation Lands and Easements <ul style="list-style-type: none">Private Conservation AreasState Sensitive Species Review AreasAgricultural EasementsEnvironmental Trust Easements (MFT)	Additional Features <ul style="list-style-type: none">Physiographic Region (Approx. Boundary)NW1 WetlandsFloodplains (Zone A)Wetlands of Special State ConcernDNR Critical Areas	More Maryland Scenic Byways <ul style="list-style-type: none">Atlantic to AppalachiansBaltimore-Washington PkwyC & O Canal RouteCatoctin Mtn LoopCharles StreetCivil War BattlefieldsCoal Heritage TourCunningham SwampFalls RoadNational FreewayNational Historic SeaportOld Main StreetsPatapsco Heritage TourSavage River RoadThe Glades
--	--	---	--	---	--

SHEET 1 OF 5

1 0 1 2 3 4 5 Miles

Lardner/Klein Landscape Architects, P.C. in association with

JOHN MILNER ASSOCIATES DANIEL CONSULTANTS, INC. BAY AREA ECONOMICS SHELLEY MASTRAN SALLY OLDHAM COMPASS

Data Sources: MDPProperty View
Maryland State Highway Administration
Maryland Department of Natural Resources
Maryland Department of Housing and Community Development
MDProperty View is distributed by the Maryland Department of Planning